Iowa Corn Suitability Rating (CSR2) (IA)

Corn suitability ratings provide a relative ranking of all soils mapped in the state of Iowa based on their potential to be utilized for intensive row crop production. The CSR2 is an index that can be used to rate one soil's potential yield against another over a period of time. The CSR2 considers average weather conditions as well as frequency of use of the soil for row crop production. Ratings range from 100 for soils that have no physical limitations, occur on minimal slopes, and can be continuously row cropped to as low as 5 for soils with severe limitations for row crops. The ratings listed in this table assume a) adequate management, b) natural weather conditions (no irrigation), c) artificial drainage where required, d) that soils lower on the landscape are not affected by frequent floods, and e) no land leveling or terracing. The weighed CSR2 for a given field can be modified by the occurrence of sandy spots, local deposits, rock and gravel outcroppings, field boundaries, noncrossable drainage ways, and so forth. Even though predicted average yields will change with time, the CSRs are expected to remain relatively constant in relation to one another over time.
